After centuries of occupation by greater powers, Tallinn has flourished into a stunning capital waiting to be explored. As one of Europe's best-preserved old towns, ancient churches, picturesque cobblestone streets and merchants' houses are just a handful of the sights that you'll encounter. Modern Tallinn is vibrant, with plenty of top restaurants to try and cultural experiences to be had in the form of art and theatre.

Tallinn In Your Pocket is the best source for up-to-date information on everything to see and do in the city.
